The Bakersfield Californian
Friday, September 22, 1916

JURY FINDS LACEY IS GUILTY OF ASSAULT

Evidence Presented by the Woman Who Was Cut Proves Convincing

The jury in the case of H. Lacey, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm, returned a verdict of guilty last evening after the case had been heard before Judge J. W. Mahon of the Superior Court.

Lacey was arrested several weeks ago after he had participated in a fight at a camp about three miles from this city, which resulted in Mrs. Lillian Harrison being terribly stabbed. Mrs. Harrison and her husband, Edgar Harrison, were the principal witnesses against the accused.

Saturday morning, September 23, at 10 o'clock, Judge Mahon will sentence Lacey.

Lacey was represented by Attorneys Henry Holsinger and A. B. Campbell.