The Bakersfield Californian
Wednesday, September 27, 1916

to be held this month among the farm centers of the county.

Lacey Gets One Year in County Jail Here

H. Lacey, who was found guilty by a jury last week of committing assault with intent to do great bodily injury, was this morning sentenced by Judge Mahon of the Superior Court to serve one year in the county jail. The motion for probation made by Campbell and Holsinger, the defendant's attorneys, was denied.

Lacey participated in a drunken row at a camp about three miles from this city several weeks ago, which resulted in Mrs. Lillian Harrison being severely stabbed. The woman, who has now fully recovered, was in a precarious condition at the city hospital here for some time after the mix-up occurred.