The Bakersfield Californian
Saturday, September 23, 1916

for the petitioner.

Lacey May Be Put on Probation

H. Lacey, who was found guilty of assault with intent to commit great bodily injury by a jury in Judge Mahon's court Thursday afternoon, was brought into court this morning at 10 o'clock to be sentenced. When Attorney A. B. Campbell, representing the defendant, asked that the prisoner be admitted to probation, Judge Mahon decided to delay passing sentence until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock so that his record can be investigated.

Riley Is Sentenced