Lacey Comes Before Court on Monday

The arraignment of H. Lacey on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, was continued over until Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when this case was called up yesterday before Judge Howard A. Peairs. The defendant stated yesterday that he had no attorney and was unable to employ one, and the court appointed Attorney A. B. Campbell to defend him when the case was called in court.

Lacey is accused of having severely slashed a companion with whom he was camping near the outskirts of this city several weeks ago.
