

Obituary Notes.

Dr. SIMON OCCHIPINTI, who had practiced in the Bensonhurst section of Brooklyn for twenty years, died of heart disease on Wednesday at his home, 1,715 Cropsey Avenue, Brooklyn. He was born in Italy sixty-five years ago and received his education in that country. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Antoinetta Occhipinti; a son, Michael, and three daughters, Arianna, Caroline and Gilda.

WILLIAM F. MCCOY, a retired Lieutenant of the New York Police Department, died on Tuesday at his home, 583 Fourth Avenue, Brooklyn, of heart disease. A solemn requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Saviour's Roman Catholic Church, Brooklyn, this morning, at which the Police Choir will sing. Lieutenant McCoy was 72 years old and had been in the Police Department for forty years. He retired nine years ago. A son, William F. McCoy, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry T. McTague and Miss May McCoy, survive him.

JOHN J. WALSH, a contracting plumber, died at his home, 185 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, on Wednesday, leaving his wife, four sons and four daughters.

Mrs. FRANCES N. BRINSMADE, wife of Henry Newman Brinsmade, died yesterday at their residence, 875 Park Avenue. She was a daughter of the late Silas M. Stilwell. She belonged to the National Society of Colonial Dames.

General ADOLF VON STRALENHOF died suddenly yesterday at his home in Dresden, Germany. His wife was formerly Miss Helen Hudson Leavitt of this city, a daughter of the late David Leavitt.

Mrs. ANNIE FLANDRAU, aged 87, a lifelong resident of White Plains, died there yesterday at the home of a friend at 42 South Broadway.

LESLIE MOUNLTHROP, 81, retired business man of New Haven, Conn., died yesterday at his home in Rockland Park, Short Beach, Conn. Before he retired in 1907 he was Secretary and Treasurer of the New Haven Manufacturing Company.