My Darling Mayme: I found 3 letters in the mail from you yesterday

One which you sent Sept 29th to Dawson which was redirected to 650 Madison Ave N.Y. Of course, all the news contained therein is almost ancient history. Then I got 2 letters Oct 29th & Nov 1st from which direct to Madison Ave. I am sorry you missed some of my mail.

I wrote 3 letters on the train, and I don't remember how many since arriving here.
And I am going to write to you as often as I can. And I am going to have you and ^{me} together as soon as we can. I am getting mighty homesick for you.
I can hardly stand it myself. After you and I have been together as much as we have, life will or would be pretty lonesome for me without you.
I know you are true to me and I want you to feel that I am absolutely true to you.

I have Considerable troubles since leaving you; all Connected with the mine. I wish they would hand me my money. I would send some of it to you at once, and you could get ready to Come East then.

You Can write to 650 Madison Avenue
N.Y. until further notice.

Hoping that we will soon meet. I am Yours Only,
Fred
