

Hogans Leaving Saturday For Home In Puerto Rico

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hogan, well known citizens of Ukiah for the past 12 years, are leaving this city today for Puerto Rico to establish their home and business in that country. Mr. Hogan will establish there a plant to manufacture Irish linen, hand-embroidered dresses, to be sold on the mainland.

The Hogans will take a plane Saturday morning from San Francisco for New York and from there will fly to Puerto Rico. A crew will be trained in the new industry before the manufacturing plant is opened.

In the 12 years Mr. Hogan has been a resident of Ukiah he has been active in many phases of progressive work in the community. Some years ago he opened up Yokayo Heights, now one of the most beautiful residential sections of the valley.

Of the hoster type, Mr. Hogan is one of a group of newcomers to this valley responsible for the present commercial progress and growth.

The Hogan home in Yokayo Heights, one of the finest in the city, has been rented to Postmaster Ruby Cunningham. Donald Hogan will remain in Ukiah in charge of the Veterans' Surplus Store and an apartment in the family home has been reserved for his use. Another son, Ralph, Jr., is in charge of the Veterans' Surplus Store in Santa Rosa.

B.P.W. President To Visit In Ukiah

Amelia Alward, district president of the Redwood Empire Business and Professional Women's Club will pay the local B.P.W. Club a visit on January 5, at their first meeting of the new year, to be held at 6:30 o'clock in the Redwood room of the Palace Hotel.

Although a regular business meeting, a program on radio and television has been planned by Helen Chaney with a delightful surprise for all. A large attendance is expected.

Helen Humphrey is acting hostess chairman assisted by Sylvia Alexander, Bertha Rapp, Ellen Eberman, Mary Moschetti and Lb Adams.

Mrs. Southworth's Mother Visits Here

Mrs. Ella Bailey, 84-year-old mother of Mrs. Charles Southworth of Calpella, surprised her daughter when she phoned from Santa Rosa to tell of her arrival there from Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Bailey made the surprise trip with her sister Mrs. Hala Potts and arrived in time to spend Christmas at Southworth's Inn with her son-in-law and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Southworth, and also her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey Bailey, who drove down from their home in Roseville, Oregon for the holiday.

Soon after New Year Day Mrs. Bailey will go to Roseville with her son and daughter-in-law and after a visit there will return for an indefinite stay with the Southworths.

Mrs. Potts spent Christmas with her relatives in Santa Rosa and plans to go on to Portland to visit family members.

Barbara Bowman-Dale Davis Are to Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowman of Betty street have announced the engagement of their daughter Barbara to Mr. Dale Davis of Ukiah. Barbara is employed in the clinical office at the Mendocino State hospital. Mr. Davis formerly operated the Davis Refinishing Shop and is now employed by the Diamond Match Company. His parents reside in the state of Kansas.

Both young people have lived in Ukiah for the past few years.

Salisburys Talked With Son In Hawaii

With all the family at home on Christmas eve the occasion was made especially joyful for Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Salisbury of the River road by a long distance telephone call from their son Bill who is stationed with the navy in the Hawaiian Islands, who called to wish his parents a Merry Christmas and to say that he was well and having a merry time himself. Bill is watch captain in the navy, with 18 months yet to serve.

Previously Bill had sent his mother a white satin luncheon set, handblocked and with an orchid in each corner and a design of the islands in the center. The four napkins were of the same design.

Donald Zink and Bride Honeymooning In Chicago After Illinois Ceremony

A wedding of interest to the benedict's friends in Ukiah was recently solemnized in the Methodist church of Alledo, Illinois when Donald Pierce Zink claimed Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Danford as his bride on Wednesday, December 28.

The benedict is the son of Mrs. Margaret Winchester of Ukiah, and a brother of Kathryn, Arnold and Raeburn Zink, also of this city. The two brothers left here on December 18 to motor to Illinois for the event.

Both the bride and groom are senior students at Yankton College, Yankton, South Dakota. Donald is well known here having visited during summer vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Zink are enjoying a honeymoon in Chicago after which they will take up residence in a house trailer near the campus until their graduation in June.

Newlyweds Establishing Their Home In Ukiah Following Reno Ceremony

Now getting nicely settled in the apartment they have taken in Ukiah are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gale Brumback whose marriage vows were repeated in Reno, Nevada, on Sunday, December 18.

The bride is the former Barbara Dumas of this city, daughter of Mrs. Lola Smith of 680 North Bush street. She is a sister of Mrs. Virgil Green and Ronald Dumas, both of Ukiah. The new Mrs. Brumback is a niece of Mrs. Liburn Gibson and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ball of this city. She is employed in the office of the telephone company.

Mr. Brumback is the son of Tom Brumback of Ukiah and Mrs. Lucille Pierce of Reno, Nevada. The young couple were met in Reno by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce who witnessed the nuptial service.

For her wedding the bride chose a lovely afternoon frock of coco colored lace with fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and full skirt with which she wore brown accessories.

The benedict is now serving a three-year enlistment in the U. S. Navy and is stationed at Alameda. He was formerly in Tennessee. He has a brother William who also resides in Ukiah.

Portlock Family Will Attend Grid Classics

Mr. and Mrs. George Portlock and sons Bobby and Ronnie leave today for Pasadena to attend the Rose Bowl football game and expect to be away from home until the first of next week. On their return trip they will stop at Modesto and visit Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lindsey.

The Portlocks' sons, George, Jr., and Bill, will attend the East-West Shrine game at San Francisco.

Mr. Lindsey, former manager of the Ukiah Montgomery Ward store, is now in business for himself at Modesto, operating an infant shop.

Elks Plans For New Year Are Elaborate

One of the most elaborate parties planned for Saturday is by the Ukiah Lodge of Elks in their hall on South State street, to which members and their guests are invited to watch the old year out.

Walter Eversole and his committee on arrangements are promising big things, with excellent music for dancing and plenty of what it takes to make New Year noise.
