SCUSE IT, IF PAPER LATE

If Redwood Journal subscribers get their papers a little late tonight, or fail to get it at all, be gentle in criticism. Ward Howard, circulation manager and the young man who delivers a great portion of the Journals, is father of a new son. It happened yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Howard still was pretty excited this morning when he passed out cigars.

Baby Donald Ward is the first son born to the Howards. He joins a sister, Darline, five years old. Mrs. Howard is the former Delores Thrus. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Ruth Thude of San Francisco. Donald Ward is the paternal grandson of Mrs. Elta Williams, also of the bay city.

Public Invited to Young Demo Meet

Ukiah Young Democrats, Democratic Ladies Auxillary and interested persons are invited to a meeting Tuesday evening, April 29, at the Ukiah municipal clubhouse, starting at 7:30 o'clock. It is to be hoped the showing will be indicative of a strong and willing democratic population.

Persons interested in the coming elections and the Democratic party are urged to attend. For additional information contact George Hildebrand, telephone 215 or 623.

Another outstanding musical lineup is scheduled for this week's Sunday Festival of Music. The program, heard each Sunday night from 8 until 11, will once again this week feature music in the lighter vein.

The third work on this week's program is the complete musical score of the big Broadway success, "Babes in Arms," with music by Richard Rogers, and lyrics by Lorenz Hart. Starred in the production is lovely Mary Martin.

A very unusual work, much of it unfamiliar, is the piano suite, "The Seasons," by Peter Tchaikovsky. In this fascinating suite is music for every month of the year. Our performance will be by Morton Gould conducting the concert orchestra. Morton Gould is also featured as piano/solist.

The final work on this week's presentation is the symphony number 2 in D major by Johannes Brahms, featuring Arthur Rodzinsky conducting the Philharmonic Orchestra of New York.

When Attorney McCowan objected to Attorney Burke qualifying as an expert in expenses, Judge Geary said: "Anyone today who has had experience in payment of doctor's bills can qualify as an expert." The judge also said that lawyers, like doctors, can take into consideration the circumstances of their client.

Attorney Burke testified that the charge against Archie Burns was a very serious one and that the time in court was a minor matter.

Cases in which lawyers are compelled to go into court are very rare to local attorneys.
