

Which Do You Prefer?

It is important for reasons of health and practical economy for every housekeeper to ask herself this question:

"Do I prefer a pure baking powder like Royal, made of cream of tartar derived from grapes, or am I willing to use a baking powder made of alum or phosphate, both derived from mineral sources?"

The names of the ingredients printed on the label show whether the kind you are now using or any brand, new or old, that may be offered is a genuine cream of tartar powder, or merely a phosphate or alum compound.

Royal Baking Powder contains no alum nor phosphate.

FORT BRAGG NOTES

(Advocate.)

Joseph Bainbridge, another of our well known and estimable pioneers, has passed away. He dropped dead Monday morning. As he had enjoyed his usual good health up to the very minute of his passing, the news came as a surprise and shock to the whole community.

Mr. Bainbridge had just driven a cow over to the William Henry ranch from his home, a distance of a few hundred feet. After talking a few minutes he turned around to return home, when he sank down dead. Heart trouble is thought to have caused death.

Deceased was 74 years old Saturday and was a native of Quebec. He came to this coast 26 years ago. The first four years of his time here was spent at Usal, after which he moved to the family home a short distance this side of Cleone, adjoining the county road, engaging in ranching.

Deceased is survived by a wife and three grandchildren, Alfred, Harold and Alma Bainbridge.

Paul J. Racine was also a nephew of the late Mr. Bainbridge and was raised in his family.

(Advocate.)

Mrs. H. McNamara, of Westport, is in the Fort Bragg hospital suffering from a break of the right leg above the knee. She slipped and fell Saturday evening while descending the hill back of Westport, on her way from her home to the Westport hotel.

A local physician reports the birth of a 7½ pound son to the wife of Frank Hyman of Cleone last Tuesday morning. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

A son was born to the wife of Gilbert Henderson at Mendocino last Thursday.

(Advocate.)

The Mendocino County Bankers' Association will hold its second annual meeting at Fort Bragg on Nov. 10th and 11th. All of the eleven banks of the county are to be represented, and preparations are being made by the local bankers to entertain about seventy-five guests.

Friday evening the visitors are to be given a reception, between business sessions Saturday afternoon an excursion to the Union Lumber Co.'s new camp on the South fork of Ten mile will be in order, and a Carabet dinner will be served at the Flinn hall in the evening by the ladies' guild of the Episcopal church.

Mr. R. A. Newell, president of the San Francisco Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, will be present and address the assembly Saturday afternoon.

The combined assets of the eleven banks of Mendocino county totaled at $3,477,112.95 on August 31st of this year.

Fire broke out and practically destroyed the donkey house on the end of the Fort Bragg wharf Friday night shortly after 12 o'clock, says the Fort Bragg Advocate. The damages, amounting to over $2,000, were completely covered by insurance. The Union Lumber Company keep all parts of their plant insured.

When discovered the fire was well under way. Its origin is not known. Work of loading the Arctic was continued that evening until 9 o'clock, but from that time on the house was closed up.

The principal loss was the burning of two new fifteen-inch breast lines, which were stored there for winter use. Their value is given out as $1,600. Other wire cable, ropes, etc., worth several hundred dollars, were destroyed. The boiler was blown out and all the pipe connections were melted.

The donkey house was practically rebuilt about three months ago, when a new double hoist wench was installed.

Temporary repairs were immediately made, and loading operations were resumed Monday morning.

SMITH COMPLETES COUNTY SCHOOL MAP

Ed Smith, county surveyor, has completed the map showing the boundaries of the school districts of Mendocino county, and the map is now in use in the school superintendent's office. It is a beautiful piece of work, from the draughtsman's standpoint and is the most accurate that has ever been made for the superintendent's use. Mr. Smith deserves much credit for the manner in which he has done the work.

WALDTEUFEL LOSES CASE AGAINST JONES

Judge White last Monday gave his decision in the case of J. A. Waldteufel vs. Bob Jones. The case was a suit for $3000, alleged by Waldteufel to be due him as commission for negotiating an option for the Vichy springs property, which was leased by Jones.

The judge denied the petition, giving judgment in favor of Jones.

Robert Duncan represented Jones, while W. D. L. Held appeared for Waldteufel.

BOOS WINS AUTO CASE

The case of Victor Boos vs. Sheriff Byrnes to recover an automobile, which Byrnes had seized on attachment, was decided in favor of Boos this week by Judge White. Byrnes had seized the machine for Mrs. Mary Lazarus, assignee of Mike Nolan, who is her brother, and in whose name Nolan did most of his business. Nolan, appears to be the chief loser in the case, the sheriff being protected by the bond which Mrs. Lazarus put up when the attachment was levied. Robert Duncan appeared for Boos.

CULTUS CLUB MEETS WITH MISS WILLIAMS

Tuesday evening, Nov. 7th, the members of the Cultus Club were delightfully entertained by Miss Louella Williams and Mrs. Lynch at the home of Miss Williams. During the business meeting the Community Christmas Tree, which the Cultus club is planning, was discussed. A report from the committee which has already conferred with several lodges and churches of the town showed that the people would be enthusiastic supporters of the community Christmas tree idea. It is the intention of the club to interest every organization in town in this tree, and it seems certain that it will be a success.

During the social hour which followed the club was entertained with the first act of the "Taming of the Shrew." This presentation afforded a great deal of fun to both the players and the spectators. The parts were well taken, especially that of Petruchio (Miss Williams) who in his elaborate costume of green and gold was easily the star of the performance. The audience was disappointed that the next act would not be given till December 5th.

At the close of the evening the guests enjoyed the delicious refreshments which the hostesses had prepared.

WILLITS LETTER

Willits, Nov. 7.—This has been the quietest general election ever held here. The fight over the two prohibition amendments so overshadowed the national issues that they were hardly discussed. Partisanship is a thing of the past, for there were very few straight tickets, and the majority of these were republicans, for most of our democrats voted for Johnson and Pettis. Strange to say, Patton polled a large number of standpat republican votes. Governor Johnson received 331 majority over Patton in the five local precincts, and Pettis beat Magnuson 229 in the same precincts. The prohibitionists had the best local organization, and they only missed their estimate by four votes. The five Willits precincts defeated Amendment No. 1 by 14 votes. The vote on Amendment No. 2 was 332 "yes" and 310 "no," which made us dry by 22 majority.

Rev. W. C. Whitaker and family have moved to Sacramento, where Mr. Whitaker will have charge of the Oak Park Baptist church.

A son was born to the wife of Eugene Shelton Oct. 31st, and a son was born to the wife of Howard Wonacott Nov. 3rd.

COMMITTS MURDER AND MAKES ESCAPE

Sheriff Byrnes and District Attorney McCowen were summoned to Greenwood last Monday on account of the murder of an Italian in Camp F of the logging woods there. The dead man's name was Chas. Marino. He was hit over the head with a gun butt during an altercation with some of his countrymen and his skull crushed. Antonio Martino, his friend, also was injured by a blow on the head, but not fatally.

Sheriff Byrnes took Ermino Paganoni into custody, with four other Italians, and charged him with the murder. Wednesday morning, while Byrnes was at Mendocino, Paganoni made his escape while Byrnes was absent for a few moments. He was traced to the woods on the outskirts of Mendocino, but could not be located.

He is about 24 years old and looks to have some Finn or Swede blood. He is 5 feet 4½ inches tall, weighs about 145, blue eyes, light brown hair, face smooth but with a week's growth of beard, wears dark suit, soft shirt, black telescope hat, brown button shoes with some of the buttons missing, and with grease spots on them. DEMOCRATS HAVE BOTH HOUSES IN CONGRESS SAFE

New York, Nov. 9.—The Democrats, assured of control of the next Senate, may retain control of the House by holding ten seats in twenty-one Congressional districts yet to be heard from. Early today the division of members already elected was as follows:

Democrats, 210.
Republicans, 200.
Progressives, 2.
Independent, 1.
Socialist, 1.

In the twenty-one districts not yet reported are the following, which are Democratic in the present Congress: Two each in Missouri and Indiana, three in West Virginia and one each in Washington, Michigan and Pennsylvania. Eleven of the missing districts are Republican, as follows:

Two in Nebraska, three in West Virginia, three in Washington and one each in New Mexico, Ohio and Wyoming.

If these districts should not hold to their present political status in the returns yet to come the Democrats would have the slender majority of five in the next House, their total being 220 to 211 Republicans and four of other minority parties.

J. B. Nevin was in from his ranch near Low Gap this week and incidentally left a box of fine Mission grapes at this office.

MRS. LYNCH'S SOLO WAS WELL RECEIVED

The political rally held by J. W. Preston last Monday evening packed the Victory theatre almost to capacity, it being estimated that there were about 750 in attendance. This is the greatest crowd of the season at an affair of this kind and eclipses that of Hiram Johnson.

The solo by Mrs. Peggy Lynch, and her encore of "America," were received with wild applause by the audience.

MINSTRELS OF TRIPOLI.

Mysterious Musicians Who Flit From Place to Place at All Hours.

The strange music and mysterious musicians heard and seen in Tripoli are described by Mrs. Mabel L. Todd in her book, "Tripoli the Mysterious."

"The children are possessed of wonderful mental quickness. They acquire languages without effort, and the street urchins use easily French, Italian and all the languages that are current in their narrow streets. The strange music of the city, too—the weird chants, the cymbals, flageolets and queer stringed instruments—deeply impresses the American visitor."

"Sometimes at dawn, when roofs and minarets were dazzlingly white against the sapphire sky, while yet the labyrinthine streets at the bottoms of steep canyons lay in twilight gray, strange men from the desert would stalk by, making uncanny music."

"One of them, very tall and blacker than most, was dressed in a low necked, short sleeved garment, greatly abbreviated as to skirts, playing melodies in a minor mode unknown to the west, and his stride was full of a dignity well high appalling."

"The instrument slightly resembled a Scotch bagpipe decorated with barbaric strings of shells and beads, an inflated skin with a primitive mouthpiece and at the opposite end two pointed projections like horns. His companion beat upon a curious little tom-tom and now and then sang a bloodcurdling chant."

"Black boys followed, jumped, shouted, danced like wild creatures, excited beyond all bounds by this oddly compelling music as the rhythm penetrated and seized their imagination. Although these men of mystery generally passed about sunrise, they sometimes went by in the night. Once or twice the weird performance took place about 2 o'clock in the morning. The minstrels always walked with peculiar swiftness, intent upon the serious business in hand."
