Redwood Valley

BY RUTH LEROY
Phone HOmestead 2-2558

The cool, damp days over the past weekend have slowed the grape harvest in Redwood Valley with the white grapes being the only ones moving now. With sunshine and a few warm days, the harvest will be in full swing by the first of next week.

Those farmers who have fall crops to plant appreciated the Monday morning rain of .84 inch as it put the soil in excellent shape for fall plowing and the hum of tractors is heard well over the entire valley.

So far this season we have received 1.03 inches of rain in the two storms we have had. Last year we had received 1.45 inches of rain, but did not get what we needed later on in the season, so it is hoped the smaller start we are getting is going to turn into an all-around better season than last.

Members of the Redwood Valley Grange are reminded that at the next meeting the evening of Oct. 14, election of officers will be held, and that is just like any other election, if you are not there to vote, don't complain about what those who were there did with their votes.

The Redwood Valley P-T-A meeting will be held in the school house the evening of Oct. 21.

Next Sunday evening the CCY will have charge of the 7:30 service at the Redwood Valley Community church. As a part of the program the young people will show a movie entitled "So Run," featuring Gil Dadds, world's champion for the mile.

On next Friday evening (tonorrow) the CCY will have a social evening in the church.

Small patches of grass catching fire are still the only activity calling the Redwood Valley fire department. On Oct. 4 the truck was called to the Calpella dump where about one acre of grass was burned over. On Oct. 8 the dump fires got too active for safety so the fire truck was again called into action to dampen down the rubbish so as to prevent the fire getting out of control. On Oct. 9 in the very early morning the truck was called out to Road A where about one-half acre of brush and grass was burned over.

Fortune smiles on each of us at some time when we least expect it. One of her smiles was given to Mrs. Ted Hinds last week when Mrs. Hinds registered at the new Sears-Roebuck order store for the door prize to be given to lucky ladies during their opening. Mrs. Hinds won a Kenmore automatic toaster.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, long time residents of the Valley who now make their home in Ukiah, are enjoying an extended vacation trip.

Mrs. H. Cookley spent two days attending to business matters in Sacramento last week.

Charles Ciancio is resting at home after a few days of hospitalization last week for medical attention. He is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson are enjoying a few days vacation by motoring to Los Angeles to attend the wedding of Mr. Nelson's sister.

Newcomers in the Valley are Mr. and Mrs. Riener who have purchased the Joe Collins home on East Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Josse who have bought the John Oakes home.

Brown officiated and interment was in Potter Valley.

Mrs. Adams was a native of Potter Valley, a member of the pioneer John Spencer family. She was born May 3, 1881.

Survivors include her husband, Joseph; a daughter, Mrs. Trilby Zortman, Alder Point; a sister, Mrs. Alta DeWitt, Hanford; four grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Supervisor Joe Hartley made the motion to postpone announcement of a decision until Oct. 24. He said more time was needed for study by the board and by District Attorney Merle Orchard. Hartley also stated it would be desirable to have the report of Engineer John Cotton, who is conducting a resurvey of the Coyote water needs.

Orchard said he would like the additional time in which to complete setting up the details of a bond election, looking forward to the possibility the board will set the election date Oct. 24.

Various methods of the lowest cost and most feasible plans of irrigation were discussed, such as from the various creeks, Etna! Dam and a combination of ground and surface waters.

By December an investigation of ground water survey will have been completed, but Round Valley must get a feasibility report which will cost approximately $25,000, half of which the government will pay. After the feasibility report is in, approximately $5,000,000 can be borrowed over a 40- to 50-year period, at no interest, with congressional approval.

Round Valley, compared with other valleys in the state, has a land classification of classes one and two.

While no vote was taken it was the general opinion that no action on the part of the district should be taken until this reclamation report has been received and evaluated.

The population growth of Round Valley has been fantastic with no letup in sight. Seventy per cent of the population is dependable upon timber, agriculture is second, recreation and sports third, with mineral industries last, but showing great promise as a permanent industry and with the promise of replacing agriculture.

Several large industries have an eye on the Covelo area for possible exploitation.

Covelo had a yellow alert last Thursday night at 10:30. The plane was unidentified and possibly hostile. Sky watchers were hastily summoned and kept on constant duty until Friday. They were George M. Biggar, Ernest DeFord, May Conner, Myrtle Brown and Russell Archerd who was on duty while not teaching school.

The hottest day on record, as far as can be ascertained, for Sept. 12 was 114 degrees. The hottest continuous spell was the first week of the month with the temperature varying from 111 to 114 degrees. Precipitation for the month was .64 inch. These are the figures of Harold Moss.

The juvenile curfew will be enforced. Children under 16 must be off the streets by 10 p. m. and those from 16 to 18 years old have until 11 p. m. This is a county and state law and will be fully enforced.
