PLAIN BUTIES FOR MITTER.

The proposition that the POTTER-BUTLE contracted shall next week take a reces until September, indicates that its managers birie to get a glimmering appreciation of the ridiculous spectacle which they are miking of themselves. But Mr. Portex and Mr. Butter have assumed responsibilities from which simple retreat is expossible. Mr. POTTER became aponsor for the resolutions under which the committee was appointed The preamble distinctly adopted as its basis the affidavit of McLin, and charged that in Fiorida the returning board was influenced in making fraudulent returns the this conduct and promises of Hon, EDWARD F Noves now immister to the government of France." It also alleged a conspiracy in Louisiana for fraudutent action by the returning board, "which was induced or oncouraged by the assurance of Hoa. Jons SHERMAN, Secretary of the Treasury." General Butter has thrust into the foreground as evidence of improper conduction the part of the Privadent and his friends the so-called Wormley conference.

After careful inquiry not a whisper of evilence has been advanced again Minis ter Noves, ' Even the story' of McLin does not cast a breath of suspicion upon him. The attack on Becretary Sherman in the preamble, was particularly gross and savage. It rested in large part on a letter al- lexed to have been written by the secrearon, which the committee has utterly failed manaduce, or to prove that it ever Whether it was the invention of M a. When CHARLES FOSTER went before the committee and announced his desire to testily at once relative to all that it was desired to inquire concerning the Wormley conference, only one course was possible volunteered from a source so trustworthy. But the audacity of General Burner was not equal to the occasion. He surrendered absolutely. He declared that nothing was reason to believe him when he bobnobbed desired from Mr. Foster on the subject.
